"God measures results very differently from the world. He looks for everybody's best in their circumstances. The world may pronounce the result a failure; but so long as the heart and purpose are true to him, he accepts it 'according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.'"

Rev. B. B. Royer,

PASTOR of the First Reformed Church, Goshen, Ind., was born near Bellevue, Ohio, twenty-nine years ago. His parents being faithful members of the Reformed Church, he was in early life, baptized, catechised and confirmed in the Reformed faith, becoming a member of Zion's Reformed Church in Tiffin Classis, a church well known to many ministers of the Reformed Church. When eighteen years old he entered Heidelberg College, from which institution he graduated with the class of 1891. In the fall of the same year he entered Ursinus Theological Seminary, where he spent two years. On the completion of his theological studies he at once became pastor of the First Reformed Church of Goshen, Ind., where he has now labored for five years. During these five years a new church and parsonage have been built, at a cost of about $12,000, while more than 200 have been received into full membership of the church. Rev. Royer is frequently called upon to deliver lectures and public addresses, and has done much successful work as an evangelist.

Thoughts for the New Year.

Hours are golden links, God's token
Reaching heaven; but one by one
Take them, let the chain be broken
Ere the pilgrimage be done.

—A. A. Proctor.

"Time was, is past, thou canst not it recall;
Time is, thou hast, improve the portion small;
Time future is not and may never be;
Time present is the only time for thee."

"I asked the New Year for some motto sweet,
Some rule of life by which to guide my feet;
I asked and paused. He answered, soft and low,
'God's will to know.'"

The years—how they have passed. They are gone as clouds go on a summer day; they came, they grew, they rolled full-orbed; they waned, they died, and their story is told. Years that are wrought upon us in thought and deed with the force and power of eternity, years whose marks we shall carry forever, were dissolved like the dew, and their work is finished.—H. W. Beecher.

Reformed Lesson Helps.

What Lesson Helps are best for Reformed Schools? Reformed Lesson Helps, for they are especially prepared from the standpoint of the Reformed Church in doctrine, morals and government, and are best adapted to the life of the church. The Sunday School Board publishes the Helps adapted to each grade of scholars. The Advanced Scholars' Quarterly and the Intermediate Scholars' Quarterly are the best of their kind. The new Home Department Quarterly is just the thing for adults and Bible study at home. The Heidelberg Teacher is indispensable to teachers in Reformed Sunday-schools. Heidelberg Picture Cards are intended for the little ones. The Heidelberg Lesson Roll, for the entire School, contains the same pictures enlarged. Besides pictures, they contain questions and answers on the lessons. "Lesson Leaves," containing only the lessons, text and questions, are also published.

Dr. Cuyler says: "Let us not climb the high wall till we get to it, or fight the battle till it opens, or shed tears over sorrows that may never come, or lose the joys and blessings that we have by the sinful fear that God will take them away from us. We need all our strength and all the grace God can give us for today's battle. Tomorrow belongs to our heavenly Father; I would not know its secrets if I could. It is far better to know whom we trust and that he is able to keep all we commit to him until the last great day."

The man who refuses to confess Christ has no right to wear his name, neither has the one who does not continue to do his will. The command is, "Take up your cross and follow," not "take up your cross and go back and sit down."

The First Reformed Church of Goshen, Ind., Rev. B. B. Royer, Pastor.

SEPTEMBER, 1875, the First Reformed congregation of Goshen, Ind., was organized. During these years of its history it has had many reverses. Its first building was the old M. E. Church, in which it continued to worship until December, 1892, when it was sold and the present location purchased, where the new church stands, as one of the most complete and desirable church homes in the city. The congregation has been served by the following ministers: Revs. W. H. Ziegler, A. K. Zartman, H. G. Gekler, I. D. Hahn and B. B. Royer, the present pastor. This church has gradually worked itself into the front rank of Goshen's many churches, and while not as strong numerically as some others, is influential, and pointed to with pride by the citizens of Goshen.

Sunday School Mission Work.

Last year the Sunday School Board expended $3,000 in this work. Grants of literature were made to new schools and weak mission schools in more than a dozen States. From the new school established at Easton, Pa., a strong congregation has grown which occupies a fine new church building. Rev. J. C. Horning, Sunday School Missionary, is at work at St. Louis, Mo., and in connection with this Mission, and to aid the Board of Home Mission, the Sunday School Board is undertaking to raise five $500 Sunday School Church Building Funds. One of these has already been paid to the Board of Missions. This work is supported by the offerings of Children's Day. The Board furnishes a Children's Day Service, free of charge, and in return asks, by action of General Synod, that the schools unite in giving offerings to the Sunday-school work of the Church.

The year 47 B. C. was the longest year on record. By order of Julius Cæsar it contained 445 days. The additional days were put in to make the seasons conform as near as possible with the solar year.

Gaust is the smallest republic in the world. It has an area of one mile and a population of 140. It has existed since 1648, and is recognized by both Spain and France. It is situated on the flat top of a mountain in the Pyrenees and has a President, who is elected by the Council of Twelve.

Many men spend one-half of life correcting the mistakes they made during the other half. Speed which leads one to error is the slowest gait in all the King's highway. "Gentlemen," said the old surgeon as they gathered with him around the operating table, "don't be in a hurry, for there's no time to lose." We must learn to reckon our speed by the distance traveled, that is by the work done; not by the puffing and stumbling, which has accompanied our efforts. Many are today out of a job who would be great workers if they could count grunting for lifting, and others would be great successes if they could count their failures.

The man who seeks to be justified by his passport of obedience will find no passage through the city gate. He may talk of the tree of life, and soar up with his paper-kite to the gates of paradise, but will find no entrance. The gates belong to the Prince of Life, who is the real tree of life; and only they shall enter who own him for their liegelord, and place their whole dependence on him, and seek a passage through his grace entirely. Such shall have a cheering taste of the tree below and joyous feast above.

THE Memorial Reformed Church of Dayton, Ohio, has a short, but interesting history. The name Memorial was given in memory of Mrs. Emma J. Hivling Williard, the deceased wife of the pastor, Rev. G. W. Williard, D. D. The lot on which the church is built was purchased the first of April, 1895; the contract for $10,400 for finishing the chapel and putting the main auditorium under roof was made the first of July; the Sunday-school which now numbers 300 was organized with 150 scholars on the fourth of August, in an old car shed, the use of which was kindly given by the City Street Railway Co. The cornerstone was laid August 25, and divine services commenced in the car shed, and continued there until the basement of the church was ready for occupancy. The congregation was organized with sixty-five charter members on the 20th of October, and has steadily increased until it now has an enrollment of 230, after deducting deaths and renewals. The chapel was dedicated the 16th of February, 1896, and the main auditorium the 10th of May, 1898. The cost of the church finished and furnished as it now is, is about $18,000. The pastor was greatly encouraged and assisted in his arduous work by the counsel and help of Rev. Dr. Hale and Elder B. Kuhns, and with the financial aid of the first Reformed Church of Dayton, O., the St. Paul's Church of Reading, Pa., and the many personal friends who have contributed so liberally to the pews, pulpit, doors, windows, &c., all of whom have the sincere thanks of the congregation.

Our Workers in Japan.

The Reformed Church has, within the last twenty years, sent nineteen workers to our mission fields in far-away Japan. We give a list with the date of their going and returning:

Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Gring, 1878; resigned 1889.
 Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Moore, D. D., 1883.
 Rev. W. E. Hoy, 1885.
 Miss Lizzie Poorbaugh, 1885; resigned 1893.
 Miss Mary B. Ault, 1885; resigned 1888.
 Rev. and Mrs. D. B. Schneder, 1887.
 Miss Emma Poorbaugh, 1888; resigned 1893.
 Miss Mary C. Hollowell, 1891.
 Rev. H. K. Miller, 1892; the Sunday-school Missionary.
 Miss Lena Zurfluh, 1894.
 Rev. and Mrs. S. S. Snyder, 1894; the C. E. Missionary.
 Rev. and Mrs. C. Noss, 1895.

Jupiter (♃) is in opposition with the sun on the 25th, and shines all night.

By passing through tunnels the train reaches points beyond mountains over which it could never hope to pass. Be still, my soul, and murmur not at the darkness. Think rather upon the end whither God leads thee, and rejoice if by any means he can bring thee to heights which are so impossible for thee to scale.

Rev. C. Z. Weiser, D. D., Dec'd.

REV. C. Z. WEISER, D. D., of East Greenville, Pa., well and favorably known throughout the entire Reformed Church, died Tuesday, March 1, 1898, after a long illness, in his sixty-eighth year. He was born October 29, 1830, at Selinsgrove, Pa., as the son of Rev. Daniel and Caroline (Boyer) Weiser. After attending the local schools, he entered Marshall College at Mercersburg, Pa., from which he graduated in 1850. In 1852 he graduated from the seminary. He was ordained to the ministry in 1855. His first pastoral charge was Selinsgrove and vicinity.

In 1859 he was married to Louisa C., daughter of Judge I. Gutelius, of Mifflinburg, Pa. They had four children, all of whom are dead, his wife only surviving him.

Dr. Weiser was, to a considerable degree, a literary man, and wrote much for the church papers. He was also a poet of considerable merit. On one occasion he presented his annual parochial report to classis in the form of a Pennsylvania German poem. The first poem in Harbaugh's Harfe is his touching tribute to the memory of Dr. H. Harbaugh.

Perhaps his greatest and most valuable work was his part in the celebrated peace movement in the Reformed Church. He had observed with pain the wasting effect of the theological controversy which had prevailed in the church during some years, and it was he who first proposed the adoption of the measure which resulted in the restoration of peace and harmony in the church. At the meeting of the General Synod at Lancaster, Pa., May, 1878, he proposed the creation of a commission by the district synods, which commission should "consider and solemnly deliberate over all matters of controversy within the church, with a view of devising a plan of amicable adjustment, . . . guaranteeing unity in essential, liberty in doubtful and charity in all things pertaining to the church."

The proposition was accepted and it proved the solution of a great problem. The commission proposed by him was appointed, and he was made its chairman. It formulated what is known as the Peace Compact, which was heartily adopted by the church, and which brought her not only peace, but also a degree of prosperity hitherto unattained. The same commission also by direction of the General Synod prepared the Directory of Worship, which was likewise accepted by the church.

An Easter Hymn.

Hark! ten thousand voices sounding
Far and wide throughout the sky;
'Tis the voice of joy abounding,
Jesus lives, no more to die.

Jesus lives, his conflict over:
Lives to claim his great reward;
Angels round the Victor hover,
Crowding to behold their Lord.

Yonder throne, for him erected,
Now becomes the Victor's seat;
Lo, the Man on earth rejected,
Angels worship at his feet.

All the powers of heaven adore him,
All obey his sovereign word;
Day and night they cry before him:
"Holy, holy, holy Lord!"

No good action, no good example, dies. It lives forever in our race. While the frame molders and disappears, the deed leaves an indelible stamp, and molds the very thought and will of future generations. Time is not the measure of a noble work; the coming age will share our joy. A single virtuous action has elevated a whole village, a whole city, a whole nation. . . . It is from small seeds dropped into the ground that the finest productions grow; and it is from the inborn dictates of conscience and the inspired principle of duty that the finest growths of character have arisen.

THIS church is located at the corner of Madison and Jefferson Streets, near the University buildings. The life and development of this congregation is contemporaneous with that of Heidelberg University. In the same year (1850) that our college was established in Tiffin, Rev. F. Wahl gathered fourteen Swiss and Rheinbavarian families together for the purpose of organizing a German Reformed Church. In 1853 Rev. E. V. Gerhart, then professor in young Heidelberg became the first stated pastor. In March, 1855, the congregation elected as pastor, Rev. Dr. J. H. Good, who remained their kind and loving pastor for fifteen years. During his pastorate the congregation erected a neat little house of worship on the corner of Tiffin and Jefferson Streets, which was dedicated on April 5, 1857, and for thirty years was the spiritual home of several hundred members, and many of the boys who now, in almost every state in the Union, labor for the Master with the light and inspiration received in and under the shadow of Heidelberg.

Upon the resignation of Doctor Good in the spring of 1870, the congregation elected our venerable Senior Professor, Doctor Herman Rust, of the Heidelberg Theological Seminary, who for twenty-two years preached to them the pure and simple gospel.

The crucial test of the wealth of the congregation and their enthusiasm for their house of the Lord was made from 1888 to 1892, when their unrelenting efforts were crowned with the sight of one of the most beautiful and spacious churches of the city.

The church was dedicated June 8, 1890. But the pleasures and labors with this new place of worship were of short duration for the venerable pastor, for in the fall of 1891 it pleased Almighty God to prostrate his faithful servant on the bed of a prolonged and serious sickness. With the Doctor's recommendation the incumbent pastor was then elected and began his work in the spring of 1892.

The time had now come in the history of this congregation, as it sooner or later will come in all our German congregations, where immigration ceases, to introduce the English language. Without forcing the use of the English or neglecting the German language, the transition into the present bi-lingual state was made without any disturbance.

The students from the University and Seminary have always been represented in this church as superintendents and teachers of the Sunday-schools, and with some of their professors, are usually seen among those who worship here and commune at the Lord's table.

On May 23, 1899, the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the U. S., will convene in Tiffin, Ohio, and hold its sessions in this church.

Rev. James D. Buhrer,

ELDEST son of a family of nine children, was born May 4, 1867, in Schaffhausen, Switzerland, where dwells the staid and sturdy race which rocked the cradle of the Reformed Church. Already in infancy he migrated with his parents to America, spent his boyhood days with the pioneers of Williams Co., O., where he was reared in Reformed faith, public and normal schools. At the age of fifteen he entered the six years' course of study in Calvin College, Cleveland, O., and was graduated an A. B. in 1889. In 1891 he completed the course in Heidelberg Theological Seminary. After being licensed to preach the gospel under the provision of the Reformed Church Constitution on May, 22, 1891, he was for three months engaged in supplying the pulpit of Salem Reformed Church, Buffalo, N. Y., after which he returned to Heidelberg Seminary and entered upon post-graduate work until the spring of 1892, when he was elected successor of Dr. H. Rust as pastor of Second Reformed Church. On the 28th of July, 1897, he entered the bonds of matrimony with Mary E. Lenser.

So much of what we do lies beyond our sight, that we have no right to say that a field is small just because it looks so.

Decoration Day.

They sleep today, our country's pride and best,
The "reveille" will call them forth no more,
No rude alarms disturb their quiet rest,
Peace reigns today, the battle's din is o'er.
Columbia weeps; from shore to shore her tears
Fall like dew-showers upon each hero's tomb,
Their memory dims not with the fleeting years,
But will like everlasting flowers bloom.

Old age and youth in arms together stood,
When came the hour of our dear country's need,
The tried and true, the faithful and the good,
All deemed it pleasure in her name to bleed.
Upon their graves our brightest flowers are strewn,
Our sweetest songs are whispered in their name;
They who were taken in their life's bright noon,
We sing today the story of their fame.

But while we sorrow and with tear-dimmed eye
Our flowers with our gratitude we give,
Let us remember though noble 'tis to die,
'Tis just as noble for one's land to live.
With whitened hair, bent form and tottering feet,
Wounded, enfeebled from the battle's fray,
Our veterans live—let peace their pathway greet,
Let us to them give flowers of love today.

And may today our banner be unfurled
In honor of the graves that are unknown;
Proclaim our liberty to all the world,
And freedom's song wave forth from zone to zone.
Columbia, sing your glad songs of praise,
Till they shall ring o'er earth's remotest seas;
While songs of gratitude and love you raise,
Oh, may your sweetest song today be peace.

ONE of the important matters likely to be discussed by General Synod this year, will be the question, "Shall the Reformed Church establish mission work in China?" Missionary Hoy recently made a trip to China, and from his reports the church has gleaned some very important information on this question.

Do not lose time worrying over wasted opportunities and misspent years. The residue of life may still be wisely used, and even the past may be turned to some account. Coke is better for some things than the coal which has been untouched.

Remember that, as you grow older, nature's tendencies are laying their grip upon you. Nature may be on your side when you are young, but against you later on.

Rev. Jesse Harmer String

WAS born in Philadelphia, Pa., February 28, 1867. He united with the Heidelberg Reformed Church under Rev. James I. Good, D. D., who soon after induced him to leave his trade which he was learning, watch-case making, and devote himself to the Gospel ministry. He is a graduate of Eastburn Academy of Philadelphia, and the School of Theology of Ursinus College. While pursuing his studies he organized Calvary Mission, Philadelphia, which increased to a large Sunday-school. With the assistance of leading members of Heidelberg and other Reformed churches a modest and substantial church was erected, in which, at his graduation in 1893, he was ordained to the ministry and installed as pastor of the thriving congregation. In July, 1897, he accepted a call to Bluffton, Indiana, where, during the first year, 61 new members have been added, and the Bluffton Sunday-school increased to the largest in the Classis. The Bluffton church has become overcrowded, making it necessary to build a temporary addition until a new church can be built. In 1894 Rev. String was united in marriage to Miss Ida Marguerite Lancaster, who is very active in Sunday-school and missionary work.

The breath of prayer keeps faith alive.

Elder Benjamin Ashbaucher

WAS born in Wayne County, Ohio, 1859, of Swiss parents, who moved four years later to Vera Cruz, Indiana. He was catechized and confirmed in the Reformed Church at Vera Cruz by Rev. Peter Vitz. In this section he worked on the farm and taught school. In 1878 he moved to Bluffton. At that time there were a few faithful Reformed people struggling to establish a church. He was elected Superintendent of the Sunday-school and has continued ever since, and now enjoys the honor of being one of the most successful superintendents. The school, under his zealous and wise leadership, has increased to more than three hundred scholars. Elder Ashbaucher is a photographer. By close application to business and the ready use of progressive ideas he has built up a thriving business. He is a noteworthy example of a public spirited man whose service we so eagerly sought for in church and state, as he is President of the Bluffton Board of Education, a member of the Board of Regents of Heidelberg University; President of the Sunday-school Association of St. Joseph Classis and Treasurer of the same Classis, also Elder of the Reformed Church in Bluffton. Elder Ashbaucher is an eloquent speaker and takes great interest in the meetings of Classis and Synod.

"How much time have we?" asked Folly, with a yawn. "Only the present moment," answered Truth. "And that is swiftly passing," added Wisdom, with a sigh. Then the three arose in haste to resume their several journeys, but found to their surprise, that plain old Industry was already on the road, and very near the gateway of Success.

Remember that there is nothing noble in being superior to some other man. The true nobility is in being superior to your previous self.

The Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip.

THE most prosperous year in the ten years' history of the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip was last year. More new chapters were formed, and old ones revived, than ever before. The general work is now firmly established. Denominational councils have been organized in the Baptist and

REV. RUFUS W. MILLER,
FOUNDER OF B. OF A. & P.

Methodist Churches, and the Brotherhood was never more cordially welcomed in the Congregational, Presbyterian and Dutch Reformed Churches. The movement has spread into eighteen denominations. The Brotherhood Star, a monthly devoted to the interests of young men and Brotherhood methods, is now recognized as the leading organ as to men's work in the local church. There are now nearly five hundred chapters with some fifteen thousand members.

At the present time Rev. Rufus W. Miller, Reading, Pa., is President of the Federal Council, and Rev. C. E. Wyckoff, Irvington, N. J., of the "Dutch" Reformed Church, is the efficient General Secretary. The officers of the Reformed Executive Council are, President, J. I. Good, D. D., Reading, Pa.; Secretary and Treasurer, W. O. Anderson, Baltimore, Md., to whom all inquiries for literature should be sent.

The Brotherhood remains true to its fundamental idea—personal work. It emphasizes the importance of church attendance, and the responsibility of church members for the attendance of others who do not attend regularly. But as each chapter is under the direction of the pastor, there is naturally every variety of church work performed. Men's prayer meetings, lecture courses, hospital work, sick visitation, relief work, the maintaining of gymnasiums, reading rooms, etc. In all work the church is the center, and unselfish effort in behalf of others is the exalted motive. The badge of the order with the historic colors of the church—black, red, orange—symbolizes the idea as contained in Daniel 12 3

Our Christian Endeavor Work.

AT the present time there are five hundred C. E. Societies in our church, and the work being done by them is of a substantial character. Very few of those which have been organized have disbanded, and new ones are being reported from time to time. Evidences of their influence for good upon our young people and upon the church at large, could be easily multiplied. Two $500 C. E. Church Building Funds were started during the past year, and the general benevolent giving of the societies has steadily increased. A subscription of about $300 was taken at the Reformed Rally, at the last Ohio State Convention, toward one of these funds. The other was started at the Pennsylvania State Convention by some of our Endeavorers gathered there.

REV. J. H. BOMBERGER,
EX-PRESIDENT OHIO C. E.

We believe that among the specially marked influences for good, exerted upon the young men and women of our congregations, have been a perceptible deepening of devotional earnestness; the awakening of a greater willingness to make personal sacrifices for the sake of being spiritually helpful to others, and training in the principles of intelligent and right-motived giving.

A somewhat new departure in the direction of securing more efficient workers, took the form of a "President's Conference," held at Barberton, O., in August last. Rev. H. J. Christman planned the gathering, and it is believed that much good was accomplished by it.

It is a fact whose significance should not be missed, that wherever a vigorous society is found, all other branches of congregational activity and Christian effort are apt to be at their best. The society has proven itself the true friend of the Sunday-school, the prayer-meeting, and the missionary operations of the congregation of which it is a part, and for purely prudential reasons, its introduction into all the congregations of our church should be encouraged.

St. Stephen's Reformed Church, Reading, Pa.

HEREWITH we present a picture of the new St. Stephen's Reformed Church in Reading, Pa., which was erected during the summer of 1898. The new edifice covers the entire lot, which is 77 by 110 feet. It consists of an auditorium and a Sunday-school chapel. The former has a seating capacity of 800, and the latter, with its galleries on three sides, will accommodate 700 persons. The two rooms are so arranged that they can be thrown together, giving a combined seating capacity of 1,500. There is an additional Sunday-school room in the basement with 350 sittings, making room for more than 1,000 scholars and teachers. There is also a large assembly room in the basement, the whole of which is finished with a cement floor. Rev. C. S. Gerhard, D. D., is the pastor of the congregation, which numbers about 675 members.

A Forgetful Bishop.

An English bishop, noted for the shortness of his memory, was one day waiting at a station for a train. Being in good time, his lordship was indulging in a solitary trot up and down the platform. While thus engaged, he came in contact with a young officer whose face seemed familiar to him. Meeting him again, he said "Good morning." At the next rencontre the bishop stopped, saying, "How is your father?" The gallant soldier replied: "He has been dead for many years." The bishop tried again with the query: "How is your mother?" "Well," said the officer, smiling, "I think she must be all right, or you would have heard had she been indisposed." The bishop walked away, but his curiosity was greatly aroused. Seeing the station master, he at once asked him if he could enlighten him as to whom the young officer was with whom he had been conversing. "Oh," replied the station master, "why, your lordship, that's the Duke of Connaught."—Household Words.

Rev. H. A. Keyser, D. D.

MAHANOEY CITY is comparatively a new place, being founded in the year 1861. It is located in the heart of the Pennsylvania anthracite coal field, eleven miles from Tamaqua and twelve miles from Ashland, along the main line of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad in the County of Schuylkill. Being a coal town, its citizenship is made up of many nationalities. Having so many creeds represented, it required a large number of churches for a town consisting of 15,000 people. There are eighteen churches, and among them is the Reformed, which is the leading Protestant Church in the town, having a membership of over 800 and a Sunday-school that averaged 425 in 1897. The membership consists of European and American Germans.

The church was built in 1864. From 1864 to 1870 it was a mission, but after that it became self-sustaining, and has prospered beyond expectation ever since.

The first pastor was Rev. L. K. Derr, D. D., now of the city of Reading, Pa. He resigned in the spring of 1870 to take charge of the Reformed Church of Slatington, Pa. On the first day of April, 1870, the present pastor, Rev. H. A. Keyser, D. D., took charge of the congregation and has continued its pastor to the present time, a period of twenty-eight years.

The congregation is abreast with the times in Christian activity, having a live Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, a Sisterhood of Mary and Martha, a Missionary Society, Mission Band and a Sewing Circle. It is claimed that the Missionary Society is one of the oldest in the Reformed Church in continuous service.

The pastor, Rev. H. A. Keyser, D. D., is a son of Heidelberg. He left the institution with others in 1869. The degree of A. M. was conferred on him by Heidelberg in 1875, and that of D. D. by Ursinus in 1892. This is his first charge and very likely his last. He, like Caleb, served long and faithfully, and hence should be taken care of by his people even unto the end.

My Bible and I.

BY ROSE BENN.

We've traveled together, my Bible and I,
Thro' all kinds of weather, with smile or with sigh!
In sorrow or sunshine, in tempest or calm;
Thy friendship unchanging, my lamp and my psalm.

We've traveled together, my Bible and I,
When life had grown weary and death e'en was nigh!
But all through the darkness of mist or of wrong
I found there a solace, a prayer, or song.

So, now, who shall part us, my Bible and I?
Shall "isms," or schisms, or "new lights," who try?
Shall shadow for substance, or stone for good bread,
Supplant thy sound wisdom, give folly instead?

Ah, no! my dear Bible, exponent of light!
Thou sword of the Spirit, put error to flight;
And still through life's journey, until my last sigh,
We'll travel together, my Bible and I.

—British Messenger.

A Chinese essayist thus describes the American people: "They live months without eating a mouthful of rice; they eat bullocks and sheep in enormous quantities; they have to bathe frequently; the men dress all alike, and, to judge from their appearance, they are all coolies; neither are they ever to be seen carrying a fan or an umbrella, for they manifest their ignorant contempt of these insignia of a gentleman by leaving them entirely to women; none of them have finger-nails more than an eighth of an inch long; they eat meat with knives and prongs; they never enjoy themselves by sitting quietly on their ancestors' graves, but jump around and kick balls as if paid to do it, and they have no dignity, for they may be found walking with women."

Pleasant thoughts and feelings of every kind that come to us are far too often buried in the oblivion of silence. The seed which, if planted in the hearts and lives of those around us would bring forth rich harvests of happiness, is carelessly thrown away. Such impressions should be regarded as a kind of trust for all those who can participate in them. If we have any bright thought, any hopeful outlook, any joyful experience, any loving emotion, let us hasten to share and diffuse it. If any ray of sunshine has penetrated our hearts or lives, let us gladly shed it on the pathway of others.

Rev. John W. Love, D. D.,

Is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., 1860, and of the Theological Seminary, then at Mercersburg, Pa., in the year 1862, when Drs. Philip Schaff, Bernard Wolff, Revs. Wm. M. Riley and Jacob Kershner were in charge. He was licensed by the Eastern Synod in October, 1862, in session at Chambersburg, Pa., and the same fall accepted a call to the Waterstreet Charge, (Alexandria) Huntingdon Co., Pa. He served this people for eight years, and in the fall of 1870 became pastor of the Second Greensburg Charge. His pastorate here continued for sixteen years, or till the fall of 1886. During these years the first parsonage and a fine new church edifice were built, the two costing about $20,000. Also two new churches in country congregations. He was closely identified with much of the general work of both the Eastern and Pittsburg Synods while a pastor in Pennsylvania, having served fourteen years on the Eastern Board of Publication, fifteen years on Pittsburg Synod's Board of Beneficiary Education, twelve years as President Board of Literary Institutions, one year on Board of Orphan's Home, six years on General Synod's Board of Home Missions, and fourteen years as Treasurer of Westmoreland Classis.

He has never missed but one meeting of his district synod, and but one of the General Synod, since its organization, and served on many important committees.

In the fall of 1886 he declined an almost unanimous call to succeed Rev. A. C. Whitmer, at Mifflinburg, Pa., and accepted a call, and the appointment of the Board of Home Missions, to Wichita, Kansas.

Here he labored in mission work for seven years, (1886 to 1893) gathered a congregation of 117, built the fine new church at Wichita, helped to build and manage Wichita University, to organize the Synod of the Interior, and has been Treasurer of its Board of Beneficiary Education from the first. In 1893 the Reformed people of Kansas City elected him their pastor; the Home Board sanctioned the call, and in July of that year he began his work in that enterprising city. He has recently completed and dedicated a fine new church edifice, in a good location, raising over $4,000 to pay for the building. He has frequently been President of the Classes and Synods to which he belonged, and has always been accredited a diligent and successful pastor. The honorary title of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him in 1895 by his alma mater—Franklin and Marshall College.

St. Paul's Reformed Church, Kansas City,

UNDER the lead of Rev. R. L. Gerhart, D. D., was organized Jan. 14, 1886, with thirty-four members. A lot on Central street was purchased in March, and a handsome church erected the same year. It was occupied early in 1887, and at the first meeting of the Synod of the Interior in October of that year it was dedicated. Rev. J. W. Love, then of Wichita, preached the dedicatory sermon.

ST. PAUL'S REFORMED CHURCH, KANSAS CITY, MO.

Rev. Gerhart resigned April, 1888, and was succeeded by Rev. Chas. A. Santee, June 30, 1889. He resigned July, 1892. A year later Dr. J. W. Love became the pastor. Within the past year a new church has been built, on Penn St. at 15th, costing $4,200 in cash, and the material, furniture, etc., of the old church.

The new building and site are estimated to be worth $10,000, all paid for except a loan of $4,000 by the Mission Board. It is a commodious, handsome, brick structure, in a thickly settled part the city. Dr. Love has now been pastor five years. The congregation has thus far labored under serious difficulties, but it is believed has now entered upon an era of progress and prosperity.

It is said that in London there are no fewer than 10,000 professional musicians of various grades, and that more than half of them are women.

Christmas.

The silent skies are full of speech
For who hath ears to hear,
The winds are whispering 'each to each,
The moon is calling to the beach,
And stars their sacred wisdom teach
Of Faith and Love and Fear.

But once the sky the silence broke,
And song o'erflowed the earth;
The midnight air with glory shook,
And angels mortal language spoke,
When God our human nature took,
In Christ the Savior's birth.

And Christmas once is Christmas still;
The gates through which he came;
And forests wild and murmuring rill,
And fruitful field and breezy hill,
And all that else the wide world fill
Are vocal with his name.

Shall we not listen while they sing
This latest Christmas morn,
And music hear in everything,
And faithful lives in tribute bring,
To the great song which greets the King,
Who comes when Christ is born?

Russia's Magnificent Churches.

"The churches in St. Petersburg are so magnificent that they, too, go to your head," writes Lilian Bell, in a letter from Russia to the July Ladies' Home Journal. "We did nothing but go to mass on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day; for although we spent our Christmas in Berlin, we arrived in St. Petersburg in time for the Russian Christmas, which comes twelve days later than ours. Saint Isaacs, the Kazan, and Saints Peter and Paul dazed me. The icons or images of the virgin are set with diamonds and emeralds, worth a king's ransom. They are only under glass, which is kept murky from the kisses which the people press upon the hands and feet. The interiors of the cathedrals, with their hundreds of silver couronnes, and battle flags, and trophies of conquests, look like great bazars. Every column is covered clear to the dome. The tombs of the czar are always surrounded by people, and candles burn the year round."

REV. J. L. MURPHY, PASTOR CORINTH REFORMED CHURCH, HICKORY, N. C.

The Twentieth Century Movement.

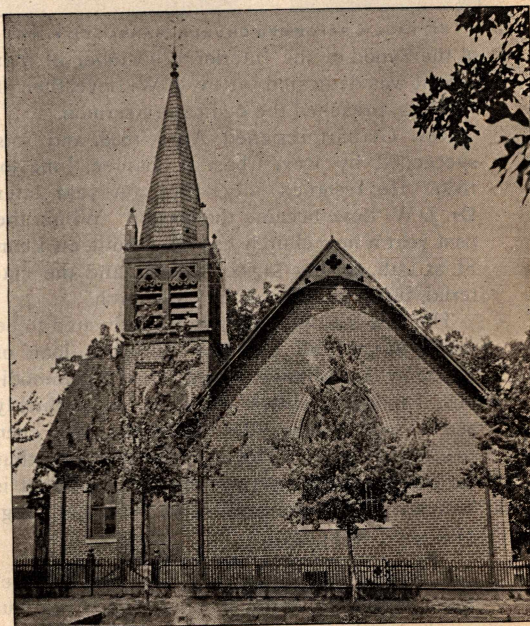

GENERAL Sunday-school work is cared for by the Sunday School Board of the General Synod. One very important matter which has received attention the last few years has been the inauguration of systematic efforts to increase the Sunday-school membership. This, however, has not yet resulted in bringing up the Sunday-school membership to the church membership. When we remember that more than ten millions of children of school age in the United States are outside of all Sunday-schools, and need to be gathered in, it is plain that every Sunday-school could do mission work. And, remembering that the Sunday-school is for old and young, and that thousands of our adult church members are not in the Sunday-school, and do comparatively little studying of the Bible, it is evident that there is room for work in this direction. As an incentive to this work, and in order to fulfil the command of the Saviour, "disciple all," the Sunday School Board has inaugurated what is known as "The Twentieth Century Movement in Reformed Sunday Schools." The object of this movement is to signalize the entrance of the Reformed Church into the twentieth century by bringing into its Sunday-schools 100,000 new scholars by April 1, 1901. A leaflet, giving a statement of the nature, occasion, motive, and method animating this movement can be obtained by addressing, Rev. Rufus W. Miller, General Secretary of the Sunday School Board, Reading, Pa. Kind reader, if you are not a member of the Sunday-school; why not?

The Sunday School Board also prepares and publishes graded Sunday-school Lesson Helps, papers, etc. And is able to supply all manner of Sunday-school requisites, such as Record Books, Reward Cards, Maps, Blackboards, Singing Books, etc.

The officers of the Board are: Rev. C. Clever, D. D., Baltimore, Md., president; Rev. C. F. Kriete, Louisville, Ky., vice-president; Rev. D. B. Lady, D. D., Greenville, Pa., secretary; Rev. J. H. Bomberger, D. D., Tiffin, Ohio, treasurer; Rev. Rufus W. Miller, Reading, Pa., is the General Secretary, who has general charge of the work, and to whom all communications should be addressed.

Discontent is a thorn on the rosebush of life.

CORINTH REFORMED CHURCH, HICKORY, N. C.

Trinity Reformed Church, East Petersburg, Pa.

ON Sunday, September 4, the beautiful new Trinity Reformed Church of East Petersburg, Pa., was "set apart from all common and secular use," and was consecrated to the worship of the Triune God. Services were held on Friday and Saturday evenings previous, and on Sunday morning, afternoon and evening. The Friday evening sermon was preached by Rev. J. D. Hicks, of Lancaster. Mr. Hicks based his remarks on Ps. 69: 9. On Saturday evening Rev. Dr. Jas. I. Good, of Reading, preached the sermon from Isaiah 32: 20. Dr. Good preached in his usual magnetic style, and everyone realized that it was good to hear his most encouraging message.

Sunday morning a large audience had gathered to hear the sermon by Rev. Dr. H. T. Spangler, of Ursinus College. He preached upon the words, "To beautify the place of my sanctuary," Isaiah 60: 13. In the afternoon Rev. J. W. Meminger, of Lancaster, delivered an address. He based his remarks on Ps. 122: 1. In his address he showed how the church had developed and traced her history through the various periods. After the address the pastor, Rev. Chas. E. Wehler, formally dedicated the church, after which Rev. Dr. Dubbs, of Franklin and Marshall College, offered prayer. The closing sermon was preached by Dr. Dubbs. His text was Ps. 65: 4, "We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house." Two most beautiful solos, by Miss Ressie T. Gingrich, of Manheim, Pa., added greatly to the effect of the services.

The building of Trinity Church was begun March 14, when the pastor cast out the first shovelful of ground. From that time to the day of dedication the pastor and members labored most assiduously for the completion of their home. When the building enterprise was commenced, the congregation had not a dollar of money in hand toward it, but they had faith and zeal. The building was to cost about $5,000, but strange to say the aggregate cost was $4,820.41. This was accomplished by the large amount of labor that was done gratuitously by the members. On the day of dedication it was found that there was a debt of $1,491.59. Although the members had already contributed largely, the pastor and his helpers made another plea for gifts, and about $500 was raised, so that there is a debt of only $900. This we regard a small amount, considering the fact that the building was begun without a dollar toward it.

SEE IF THERE BE ANY WICKED WAY IN ME.
—As surely as the careful agriculturist will root out all the weeds that he finds, so surely will our Father take from us whatsoever of sin and defect he discerns in us, if we let him. Many people in India in the last plague gave no end of trouble to the sanitary authorities because they would hide away the corpses in the back of their hovels; when the dead cart came round they said that there were no dead in the house; and so the corpse remained to poison the atmosphere and kill some more of them. If we keep our sins huddled up in the back premises of our nature and try to put a screen between them and God, by impenitence and locking our lips against confession, then God can not cast out the sins that we cling to and will keep.—
Alexander MacLaren.

St. John's Reformed Church, Milton, Pa.

THE cornerstone of this commodious structure was laid in 1888, while Rev. F. C. Yost was pastor. It was not completed and dedicated until October, 1895. This last building cost $25,000. It is finished in antique oak, and is 63x81 feet, two-story, built of pressed brick and trimmed with brown stone.

The membership of the Sunday-school is 327. Elder Daniel Clinger is superintendent, and W. W. Auspach is the assistant superintendent. The congregation has a membership of 419. The present pastor, Rev. D. W. Ebbert, took charge of the congregation just eight years ago. During that time there has been added to the membership 233 persons. Rev. Mr. Ebbert came here from Dayton, Ohio, and is one of the most popular clergymen who has ever assumed a pastorate here.

There can be no well-grounded assurance of a "future" salvation that is not based upon the enjoyment of a "present" salvation.

Our Hungarian Work.

It is an interesting fact that in our home missionary work we are preaching the gospel in five languages: English, German, Hungarian, Slavic and Bohemian. Of the two last named we have but one congregation of each, namely, a Bohemian in Chicago, Ill., and a Slavic in Mt. Carmel, Pa.; but of Hungarians we have a comparatively large number.

How did we find these Hungarians? We did not find them; they found us. For several years these people came to our pastors for the ministrations of the Church, and these pastors brought them to the attention of the Church authorities; and at length in 1890 the General Synod directed the Board of Home Missions to send to Hungary for missionaries. These men have been coming from time to time until now we have eight Hungarian charges, including over twenty organized congregations.

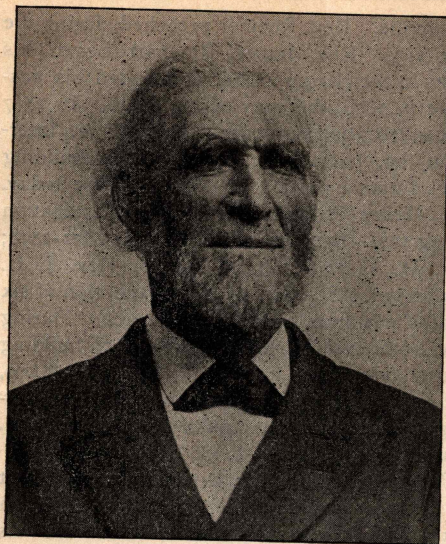

These people are humble but sincere, poor but worthy, having their own national and social peculiarities, as is natural, but gradually losing these by a longer stay in America.

In building their churches they must have help. They have more faith and determination than cash; but the Board loans them a reasonable sum, and then out of their poverty they raise the balance. Then, too, they always help each other; and when building a church they send out appeals far and wide among their countrymen and receive a handsome return.

You must admire their self-help. They do not want anything for nothing. All they ask is a little time. "Help us to build the church, and we will in good time return the money." So say they all. Every pastor keeps a careful record of the finances. Each member is supposed to pay a certain sum monthly, and the books at a glance show how his account stands.

They have paid for their church in Pittsburg, Pa.; they are far on with the payment in Cleveland, O., and they are doing well in Bridgeport and in South Norwalk, Conn. The loan to Trenton, N. J., has just been made; but the same spirit of self-help will in due time return that money.

The present population of the United States exceeds that of Germany by about 22,000,000, and that of Great Britain by 34,000,000.

Rev. Geo. W. Henning, A. M.,

Stated Clerk of Ohio Synod,

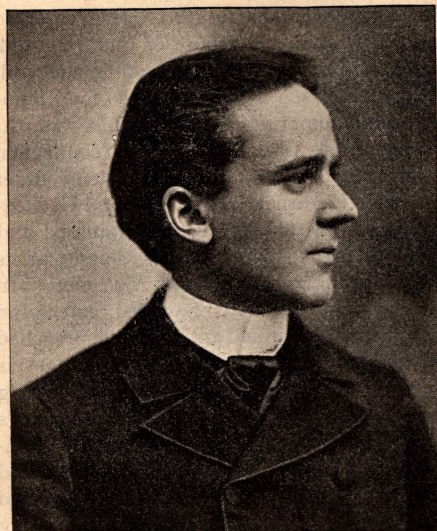

WAS born in Stark County, Ohio, January 5, A. D., 1833. Worked on the farm and attended the public school in winter until seventeen years old, attended Massillon Union School one term, with Hon. Lorin Andrews (the first superintendent of the first Union School in the state, and afterwards President of Kenyon College) as teacher, was engaged in school work about thirty years, (and never failed at any examination for certificate) taught thirteen terms in district schools, eight of which were in his home district, taught two terms in California Seminary, Washington Co., Pa., was "Assistant Teacher of Hebrew" during his senior year in college, one year "Professor of Languages" in Western Reserve Seminary, Farmington, Trumbull Co., Ohio, two years Principal of Georgetown Seminary, Columbiana Co., Ohio, one year Superintendent of the Public Schools in Louisville, Stark Co., Ohio, and eleven years, from 1864 to 1875, Principal of one of the Ward schools in the city of Canton, Ohio.

In March, 1851, entered Mt. Union Seminary (afterwards College) from which he graduated in the classical course June 23, 1859, taking the first honor of his class (valedictory), receiving the degree of A. B., and three years later that of A. M. On November 10, 1859, was married to Miss Maria Louisa Longshore, of East Fairfield, Columbiana Co., Ohio; blessed with eleven children (the oldest son is, and has been for a number of years, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Hamilton Co., Kansas). In connection with his school work, studied theology under Revs. Peter Herbruck (his pastor), and G. Ziegler, and in September, 1862, was examined and licensed to preach by St. John's Classis, at its annual meeting in Paris, Stark Co., Ohio. In this congregation he was baptized, catechised and confirmed, examined and licensed, preached his first sermon, and supplied it one year as his first charge. In July, 1863, was ordained, having received and accepted a call from the St. Peter's and St. Paul's congregations in Marlboro Township, Stark Co., the latter of which he served for twenty-four years. In 1886 and 1887 served the Strasburg (or Maximo) Charge consisting of four congregations, and in connection with it reorganized the St. John's congregation in Southington, Trumbull Co., Ohio, and served it nearly three years. In 1893 and 1894 again supplied the Maximo Charge. He is at present Stated Clerk of the Ohio Synod, Stated Clerk of Eastern Ohio Classis, Secretary of the Classical Sunday-school Convention, Secretary of the Missionary Association of Eastern Ohio Classis, and secretary of several other minor associations, also a member of the Board of Regents of Heidelberg University, and of the Board of Visitors of Heidelberg Theological Seminary.

The Congo Railway.

The opening of the railroad which connects the Congo at sea level with the Congo above the rapids at Stanley Pool is of the greatest interest to the missionary societies working in the immense upper basin of the river. From Matadi to Stanley Pool is a distance of 250 miles, across which all goods have hitherto been carried on the backs of porters. Above Stanley Pool river steamers can traverse 3,000 miles of water-way, reaching 30,000,000 people. There are already forty-five steamers on the upper river, and the commerce is sure to grow rapidly now, that communication with the coast is easy, while there will be a noticeable decrease in the expense of travel and shipment of mission supplies.

REV. A. V. CASSELMAN, PASTOR

Grace Reformed Church, Columbiana, Ohio.

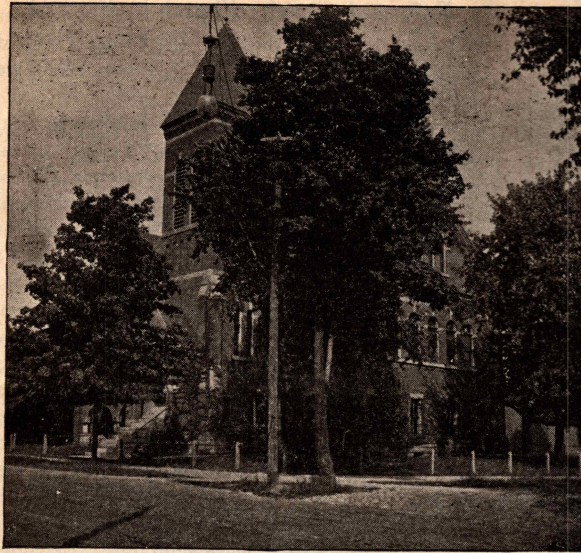

EARLY historical data concerning the congregation are very meager. According to trustworthy tradition, a Reformed missionary by the name of Mahnesmith came to northeastern Ohio in 1813, and preached in Columbiana, holding catechetical exercises in the village tavern. In 1814 the "School and Meeting-House Society for Columbiana" erected a log building upon a lot granted by Joshua Dixon, "proprietor of the town of Columbiana," in which it was "allowed for any licensed preacher, that preaches the gospel of Jesus Christ in purity, to preach if he makes application to the trustees." The church stands on the same lot today. Here Rev. Mahnesmith continued his labors until 1830, and several of the older members of the congregation have heard him preach. About this time the Lutheran and Reformed people erected a union church on the same site, and, at the first communion held in it by our congregation, sixty members were received. Rev. Henry Sonnedecker served the congregation until 1845, from which time until 1852 it was served by a minister by the name of Palsgrove. Owing to internal discord the church disbanded until 1858, when it was reorganized by Rev. Aaron Warner, who was then supplying Washingtonville. Rev. Roemer preached during the year 1859. Rev. James Rinehart began his labors in the charge in 1860 and ended his pastorate in 1870, the year of his death. In 1867 the congregation purchased the Lutheran interest in the church and erected a new building which forms a portion of the one in use today. Rev. Henry Hilbish served the congregation during 1871-1872; Rev. J. M. Kendig, 1872-1878; Rev. H. T. Spangler, 1878-1880; Rev. J. H. Bomberger, 1880-1897, with the exception of six months' pastorate by Rev. J. H. Lerch. During Rev. Bomberger's pastorate the church building was remodeled and enlarged at a cost of $8,000, and nearly 600 members were added to the congregation. The present pastorate of Rev. A. V. Casselman began May 1, 1898.

The congregation, which now numbers about 400, sustains a splendid reputation for Christian work in the community and in the church. Its apportionments are always paid; its special contributions for missions are praiseworthy; it has sent out from its midst a comparatively large number of ministers and two of our foreign missionaries, Rev. S. S. Snyder and Miss Lillie Rohrbaugh—all of which reveal the Master's blessing upon the work of former faithful pastors.

WE ARE WEAK, AND YE ARE STRONG.—At certain rocky cliffs on the ocean-side curious mollusks may be seen sticking closely to the rocks. Each mollusk clings so tenaciously that the dash of the waves can not tear it away. The secret of its hold is that the mollusk is empty; if it were filled either with flesh or air, it would be swept off immediately. This illustrates the spiritual condition of every sincere, conscientious Christian who has been emptied of self, and clings to the Rock of Ages by the law of adhesion. If that Christian allows pride or self-conceit to steal in, or if he begins to gorge himself with the sins of the flesh, he will soon yield to the waves of temptation and be swept away. Just as long as he is weak in himself he may become immovable through Christ Jesus dwelling in him.—Theo. L. Cuyler.

GRACE REFORMED CHURCH, COLUMBIANA, OHIO.

Foreign Missions.

The Board of Foreign Missions consists of Revs. Jas. I. Good, D. D., president, John H. Prugh, D. D., vice-president, S. N. Callender, D. D., secretary, Elder Jos. L. Lemberger, Ph. M., treasurer, Revs. A. R. Bartholomew, D. D., J. Spangler Kiefer, D. D., J. Dahlman, D. D., C. R. Dieffenbacher, D. D., P. Greding, D. D., Elders B. Kuhns, J. Y. Dietz and J. Z. Gerhard, M. D.

The Executive Committee consists of the officers, and Rev. A. R. Bartholomew, D. D., and Elder J. Z. Gerhard, M. D.

No new missionaries were sent out during the year. Rev. D. B. Schneder, after a very successful furlough, returned to his field of labor. Miss Mary C. Hollowell, after seven years' service, will return on furlough, sailing from Yokohama October 1, 1898. During the year Rev. H. K. Miller was married to Miss Sarah S. Sprague, of the American Episcopal Mission in Japan.

Our present corps of missionaries consists of Revs. J. P. Moore, D. D., W. E. Hoy, D. B. Schneder, H. K. Miller, C. Noss, S. S. Snyder, (all of whom are married), Mr. Paul L. Gerhard, and Misses Mary C. Hollowell, Lena Zurfluh and Lillie M. Rohbaugh.

Revs. Hoy, Schneder, Noss and Snyder are Professors in the Tohoku Gakuin (Boys' School), Rev. Miller is Superintendent of Evangelistic Work for the northern section of the field, and Rev. Dr. Moore, residing in Tokyo, for the southern. The three ladies, Misses Hollowell, Zurfluh and Rohrbaugh, are teachers in the Girls' School in Sendai.

There are 56 preaching points within the compass of the Mission, which is some 500 by 100 miles in extent. There are 37 native evangelists; some 3,700 members and adherents; 36 Sunday-schools, and 1,324 scholars. In the two schools, the Tohoku Gakuin and the Girls' School, there are about 180 scholars, of whom 83 are Christians, and 13 of them connected with the church during the year. Others are prepared for that step but are restrained by their heathen parents.

In all 185 were added to the church on confession, during the year.

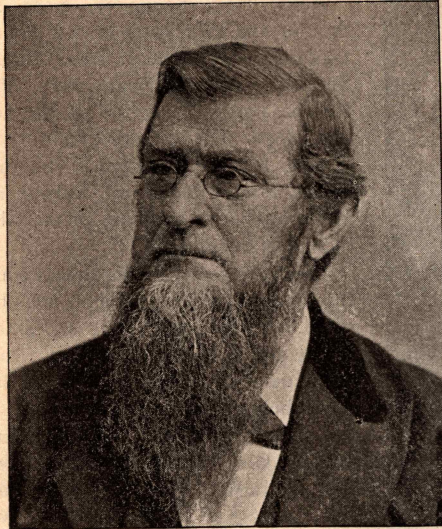

The work suffered some interruption by the illness of Revs. Dr. Moore and Hoy. Rev. Hoy is again at his work, but Dr. Moore is still disabled. With these exceptions, the work has gone successfully forward.

BLESSED ARE THEY THAT MOURN.—The floods washed away home and mill—all the poor man had in the world. But as he stood on the scene of his loss, after the water had subsided, broken-hearted and discouraged, he saw something in the bank which the waters had washed bare. "It looks like gold," he said. It was gold. The flood which had beggared him made him rich. So it is oftentimes in life. Sorrow strips off loved possessions, but reveals the treasures of the love of God. We are sure, at least, that every sorrow that comes brings to us a gift from God, a blessing which may be ours, if we will accept it.—J. R. Miller.

Mr. Nelson E. Brewer,

WAS born in Washington Co., Md., on September 17, 1832. His parents' names were Emmanuel Brewer and Catherine Zacharias, a sister of the Rev. Dr. Zacharias, former pastor of the Reformed Church, Frederick City, Md. In 1844, upon the death of his parents, Mr. Brewer moved to Frederick City and became a member of the family of Dr. Zacharias, and lived with him until September 22, 1851; he then came to his uncle's at Monroe, Mich., and taught school until May, 1853, when he came to Heidelberg College. He graduated from the college in 1855, one of two members, of this second class in the history of the institution. He united with the First Reformed Church, Tiffin, in 1858 or '59, and was elected superintendent of its Sunday-school in April, 1861, and has continued in that office ever since. He has been an elder since 1863. When in Tiffin Elder Brewer has not been absent ten Sabbaths from Sunday-school since 1861. He has been either a trustee or regent continuously for the past forty years in Heidelberg College and University.

Reformed (Dutch) Church in America.

From the proceedings of the General Synod of our sister church, held in June, 1898, we gather the following facts:

Number of churches, 633; ministers, 683; members received—confession, 5,039; certificate, 2,818; total membership, 110,273, a gain of 2,213. The present Sunday-school enrollment is 123,667, a gain of 3,000. The contributions for benevolent objects were $227,860 for the year, a gain over the previous year of $22,971; for other objects, $103,857, a gain of $2,952; congregational expenditures, $1,005,876, being $32,445 less than last year.

The fund for the relief of disabled ministers has an endowment of $63,273. The income during the year from interest and collections was $6,243. Paid to disabled ministers, $6,825.

The Widow's Fund receipts for the year were $10,796, while $8,809 were paid out. Legacies amounting to $15,168 were received during the year.

The Sunday-schools gave during the past year $11,798.22 for foreign missions, $8,263.89 for home missions, and $247.18 for education. The Endeavor Societies gave $6,569.57 for foreign missions, $3,327.67 for home missions, and $40.00 for education, making a total of $9,937.26, or a gain of $1,774.78.

There are 560 Endeavor Societies in the church, of which 156 are Juniors; membership, 30,000. The Missionary League has 20,000 members.

Thirteen ministers died within the past year.

BE STILL, AND KNOW THAT I AM GOD.—God takes no pleasure in pain or sorrow, but he will impose both if thereby he may bring us to love him or make us more like himself. At such a time it is selfish, unbelieving, to complain and murmur—very wicked to find fault with God. There are medicines which, taken with wisdom and in moderation, baffle disease and restore health; but abused, they weaken and destroy. So with sickness and sorrow, as we please to use them. To some they are what God means them for all, a savor of life unto life; to others, a savor of death unto death. At such a time it is only wise to be very considerate, very humble, very submissive.—Lutheran Observer.

Rev. Thomas F. Stauffer, H. M.,

BORN near Greensburg, Westmoreland county, Pa., December 25, 1838. Graduated at Westmoreland College 1863 with the A. B. degree. Graduated at the Mercersburg Theological Seminary 1865. Received the honorary degree of A. M. from Mercersburg College during the presidency of E. E. Higbee, D. D. Was licensed by the Synod of Ohio in 1865, and ordained and installed pastor of Fostoria Charge by Tiffin Classis August 31, 1865. In 1866, received and accepted a call to Pine Run Charge, Westmoreland Classis, Pa. During this pastorate the Reformed Church near South Bend, Armstrong county, Pa., was erected and dedicated. Also Olive Reformed Congregation was organized and the Olive Reformed Church, near Sardis, Pa., built and dedicated. In 1871 he accepted a commission to the Trinity Mission, Wilkesburg, Pa., erected and dedicated Trinity Reformed Church. In 1877 he accepted a call to

St. Paul's Orphan Home, serving as Superintendent until 1882, when he resigned to accept the pastorate of Butler Reformed Church, which he organized. The Lutheran Church here had been purchased, repaired and dedicated as a Reformed Church. In 1884 he resigned the Butler Charge and accepted a commission as missionary at Abilene, Kansas. During this pastorate Grace Reformed Church was erected and dedicated. Also the German Evangelical Church, Enterprise, Kansas, was secured, repaired and dedicated as a Reformed Church. In 1889 he resigned the Abilene Charge to accept a commission as missionary in Lincoln, Nebraska. The result of this pastorate was the purchase of the new St. Mark's Lutheran Church by the Board of Missions, and its dedication June 12, 1898. He resigned this mission and ceased regular pastoral labors April 1898, accepting a commission to the Grace Reformed Mission, Sioux City, Iowa, pastorate dating from June 1, 1898.

JAPANESE audiences are models of politeness. No one yawns, snaps his watch, shuffles his feet, or goes out, even though the speaker is talking in an unknown tongue. Every eye is upon the speaker. When he begins to speak he is greeted by a polite obeisance from every one in the audience; and when he concludes, another low bow from every one in the room says silently: "I thank you." After the address another song, a prayer and benediction, and then what? A grabbing of hats and canes and overcoats, and a break for the door? Oh, no; the Japanese have not learned thus to close their worship. All drop into their seats again; for a full minute they sit with covered eyes and bowed heads, and then slowly and reverently pass out of the church, or break up into little groups.

Look back to the cross and the disciples gazing on it in terror from afar, and then look around on the faith that there centers, and note the change!—R. S. Storrs.

MT. OLIVET REFORMED CHURCH NORTH LIMA, OHIO, REV. H. E. KILMER, PASTOR.

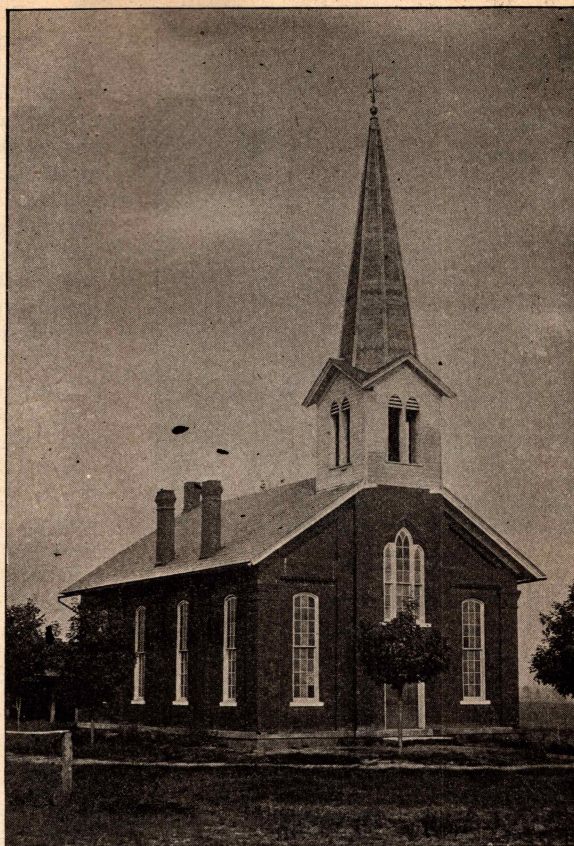

Mt. Olivet Church.

THE congregation which worships in this edifice is one of the oldest of the Ohio Synod. The Reformed pioneers in connection with their Lutheran brethren, as far back as the year 1808, took the initial step to organize congregations, and build a house of worship. Three acres of land, to be used for church, school, and burying purposes forever, were purchased for one dollar. In due time a log church was erected, and rudely furnished, but was not dedicated until the year 1823. With the desire that peace might prevail in this union church, it was named Good Hope. An exploring missionary from Westmoreland county, Pa., first preached the Reformed doctrine in 1807. Rev. J. P. Mahnensmith became its first pastor in 1811, and served until 1831. He was succeeded by Rev. Henry Sonedecker, who also served faithfully for twenty years. The charge was then supplied by Dr. Aaron Wanner, who is credited with having preached the first English sermon in its history. Rev. Englebach then served for two and a half years. Rev. F. Wahl then served as pastor for some time. In the beginning of the year 1860, Rev. James Reinhart received a call, and served ten years, when he resigned to go to Wooster, Ohio, but death overtook him before he left Columbiana. Rev. Henry Hilbish was next called and served eight years. Then Rev. C. M. Schaaf was pastor six and a half years. After this Rev. A. Meyer served as pastor for ten months, until he fell a victim to consumption. In February, 1888, Rev. L. M. Kerschner was called and served about three and one-half years. On August 28, 1892, the present pastorate of Rev. H. E. Kilmer began. In 1861, at the beginning of Rev. Reinhart's pastorate, the present church was constructed and named "Mt. Olivet"; and in 1890, during Rev. Kerschner's pastorate, it was beautifully repaired. The membership is 270.

Paradise Reformed Church.

THE congregation worshipping in this church was organized in 1849. A frame union building which was known as the Messerly Church served the wants of the congregation until it was destroyed by fire. In 1884, during the pastorate of Rev. Schaaf, the present brick church was built near the site of the old church and named the Paradise Reformed Church. This congregation was originally a part of the Canfield charge, but later became a part of the Mt. Olivet charge, to which it at present belongs. It was therefore served by the pastors of the Canfield and Mt. Olivet charges. This church has a membership of 120, and a Sunday-school enrollment of 147, with an average attendance of over one hundred, besides, maintains a very flourishing Mission Band of Willing Workers. This congregation will celebrate its Semi-Centennial this year. The Eastern Ohio Sunday School Association will hold its twenty-eighth annual session in this church in August. Rev. H. E. Kilmer is its present pastor.

REV. H. E. KILMER, PASTOR.

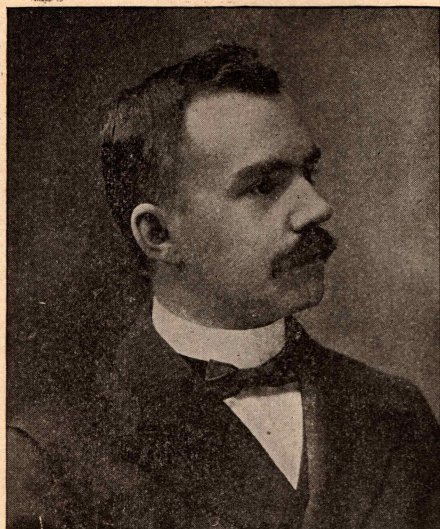

“Let Me Tell It!”

A sweet-faced little boy, on hearing the story of Jesus for the first time, slipped away from the lap of his teacher, saying, “Let me go and tell it! I must go and tell my mamma.” Swiftly as his little feet could move, he ran across the room and down the stairs, bearing the good news to his mother. Now the mother had known the story all her life—and kept it to herself.

Ten thousand pities, is it not, when any of us live a life so full that there is no place for telling out in words the life of Jesus? What better story could be told than this of our living Jesus? Not one! Tell it to a heathen, and something in that secret place within him answers to it.

Tell it to a little child, his eyes will twinkle like the stars, and everything within will vibrate, “Yes, I know him!” Tell the story to a youth, or maiden, and lo! together say they, “Yes, ’tis Love divine; through love we know him.” Tell of Jesus to the aged, bent and weary, worn and waiting; then you shall see upon the human face the light of human loves and hopes die out, go down and disappear—to rise again, as He, the Lord of life, comes in to be their life forever. “Let me tell it. I must tell it to my mamma.” Ah, God blesses the one who tells it!

“The world would not have been so weary if a large part of it had not worked too hard trying to find an easy job.”

REV. I. CALVIN FISHER, PASTOR

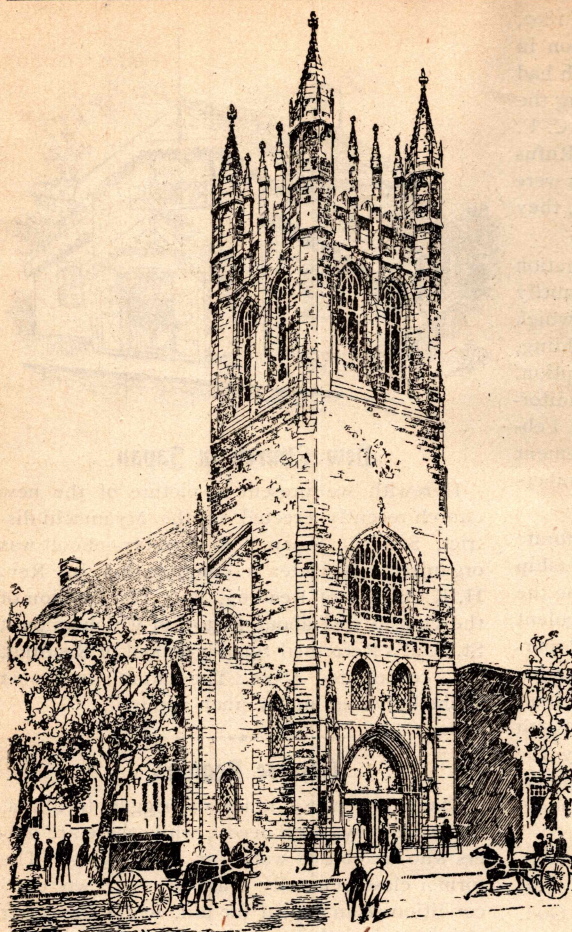

St. Mark's Reformed Church, Lebanon, Pa.

ON the first day of March, 1885, St. Mark's Reformed Sunday-school was organized with eighty-four members. The school met in what is now City Hall until December, 1885, when they took possession of their new church home. The school, under the direction of Supt. A. H. Miller and his able corps of assistants, made rapid strides of progress, so that on May 12, 1887, a congregation was organized. 152 members from the First Church, this city, and four members from St. John's Reformed Church, Jonestown, Pa., a total of 156 constituted the organization of St. Mark's Reformed congregation. Rev. Oscar P. Steckel was elected its first pastor, and served the congregation until August 1, 1892. Rev. I. Calvin Fisher, the present pastor, took charge of the work on November 1, 1892. The congregation is well organized, sustaining a Junior and Senior C. E. Society, a Missionary Society, a Ladies' Mite Society, and a Literary and Social Circle. During the summer of 1894 an addition was built to the church proper and changes made in the interior of the building, so that the present building, commodious parsonage, and lot of ground are valued at from sixteen to eighteen thousand dollars. The congregation is entirely free of debt. Present church membership, 500; Sunday-school membership, 575.

The present pastor was born in Marion Township, Berks Co., Pa., on the 16th of October, 1867. He received his education in the public schools of his native county, Oley Academy, K. S. N. S., Palatinate College and Ursinus College, graduating from the latter institution (in the classical course). He also took a full course in the Ursinus School of Theology. His first field of labor was the East Vincent-Pikeland Charge in Chester County. Here he was ordained in June, 1891. He served these people until November 1, 1892, when he took charge of his present congregation. During the past six years as pastor of St. Mark's, he confirmed 155, and received by certificate 195 or a total of 350.

Second Reformed Church, Reading, Pa.

THE Second Reformed Church of Reading was organized by Rev. John C. Bucher, then pastor of the First Church, July 9, 1848, with twenty-five members. The first pastor was Rev. Dr. T. C. Porter, who served as such until May 1, 1849. He was succeeded by Rev. Dr. Moses Kieffer, who began his work in August, 1850. During the early years of its history the Second Church passed through a severe struggle for existence. Though few in number and representing but little wealth, they went forward in faith with the erection of the church building. The cornerstone was laid on September 14, 1851, and by February 6, 1853, the edifice was so nearly finished as to be in a condition to be used, and was consecrated for divine service amid many anxious hopes and fears.

On August 7, 1855, Dr. Kieffer resigned the pastorate. Reluctantly it was accepted and took effect October 1st of the same year. Dr. C. F. McCauley assumed the pastorate in December, 1855. He found the flock small and disheartened by reason of the large debt. But he set to work in great earnestness and with indefatigable zeal. It seemed impossible for the congregation to reduce the amount of its indebtedness.

By the autumn of 1859 it had become clear that the Second Church must ultimately fail, unless some aid could be secured beyond the bounds of the congregation. Amid tears and prayers pastor and members turned to the synod for advice and assistance. Their memorial was generously received by the synod, and action was taken commending the Second Reformed congregation of Reading to the liberality of the Church at large. Dr. McCauley, by traveling through the synod and making in many congregations a personal application for aid, succeeded in raising $3192.95. This gave to the members of the congregation such encouragement that they raised among themselves nearly four thousand dollars, thus liquidating the entire indebtedness of about seven thousand dollars. For nearly thirty-six years Dr.

McCauley served the congregation with unflinching fidelity. He resigned in November, 1891. During the last five years of his pastorate he was ably assisted by his son-in-law, Rev. Rufus W. Miller.

Rev. S. R. Bridenbaugh, D. D., the present pastor, accepted the call from the Second Church in January, 1892, but immediately thereafter was prostrated with a severe attack of typhoid fever, and did not move to Reading until May 17th. He perceived an opportunity of securing a church property and organizing a Sunday-school in West Reading. After preaching every Thursday evening in this section of the city for some months, he organized St. James' congregation on January 1, 1893. A short time prior to this, November 13, 1892, he organized Faith Reformed congregation in the neat chapel on Bingham street, which had been erected by the Second Church during the closing part of the pastorate of Rev. Dr. C. F. McCauley and his zealous assistant, Rev. Rufus W. Miller. These two new congregations were constituted a charge, and in January, 1893, they called as pastor Rev. F. B. Hahn.

In the beginning of 1896 the congregation unanimously resolved to enlarge and beautify the church building. Plans were adopted which involved the tearing down of the old building, except the front wall, and with that exception, erecting an entirely new edifice. The auditorium was opened for worship on Sunday, February 20, 1898. The cost of the enlargement and improvements has been in round numbers $60,000.

During the five years of the present pastorate 306 persons have been added to the membership of the congregation. During the same time the congregation has contributed for benevolent purposes $38,450, and for congregational purposes $65,000. In January, 1896, the congregation purchased as a parsonage the excellent three story brick dwelling at 228 South Sixth street, which has since been occupied by the pastor and his family. The present membership of the congregation is 652. In the Sunday-school there is a total enrollment of 500.

We regret that space will not permit us to give a description of the interior of this most beautiful temple erected to the worship of God.

Sin Will Out.

A child once broke a very valuable ornament which he had been forbidden to touch. Remembering the full tide just then lapping the garden wall, he stole out and threw it into the waves. But when the tide went out, some one found the broken ornament, and carried it home, and the child's two-fold fault, disobedience and deceit, was found out. We forget sometimes that life is only a tide, and hope to hide our sins under its waves. Let us remember that one day it will go out and our guilty secrets will be discovered.—Helping Words.

Idleness is the parent of many vices.

New Church in Japan.

Herewith we present a picture of the new church recently erected in the Myamachi district, Sendai, Japan. A Sunday-school was organized and later a congregation by Rev. H. K. Miller, of Reading, Pa. The erection of the church cost about $1,300, of which amount St. Paul's Reformed Sunday-school of Reading, Pa., contributed $800. The church is a neat frame building, and is much admired.

Chinese Beggars.

There are many kinds of beggars in China. Some are very, very needy, while there are others who are able to work for their living. The former class generally trust to their wretched condition as an appeal for aid, while the latter class trust to their strength, or rather to their meanness. While I was out on the market a short time ago I saw a sight which I will tell you about. Near where I was selling books I saw two men, with knives in their hands, trying to force a few cash out of some cloth dealers. I first thought they were going to use their knives on the merchants, if they did not give them what they asked. But no; that was not their way of doing it. Their plan was to cut their own foreheads, which they soon did, letting the blood run freely all over their faces, then rub their hands over their bloody faces, and wipe them on the merchants' things. The Chinese are very superstitious, and make a great deal over the sight of blood, and there are always plenty to take advantage of such, to get a few cash.—Sel.

REV. ALBERT KLINGER, PASTOR

Springboro, Ohio, Reformed Church,

WAS born near West Alexandria, Ohio, April 7, 1863. Early in his childhood he moved with his parents to Miami Co. After spending fifteen years on the farm, he moved with his parents to Bradford, Ohio, graduating from the High School there in 1884. He was married to Miss Mary Olive Myers, September 6, 1885, who passed to the church triumphant last May. After a few years of business, he prepared for the ministry. While pursuing his studies he supplied the Salem Charge, and organized the Oran congregation. During his pastoral oversight the church at this place was built. In 1891 he was licensed and ordained by Miami Classis, having accepted a call from the New Pittsburg Charge. In the following fall the new church at Boundary of this charge was built. In the fall of 1892 he resigned to accept a call from Springboro, Ohio, where he is still serving.

This church was organized about 1800, and a building erected two miles from where the town now stands. This house served the congregation as a place of worship until the year 1862, when the present structure was built under the pastorate of Rev. Dr. Reiter. The congregation was started and has been fostered principally by Germans who came from New York City, Virginia and Pennsylvania, some of whose descendants are now actively engaged in carrying on the work.

Ministers who have served the congregation:

Rev. Reuben Fouse Shultz,

PASTOR GRACE REFORMED CHURCH, SPRINGFIELD, O.

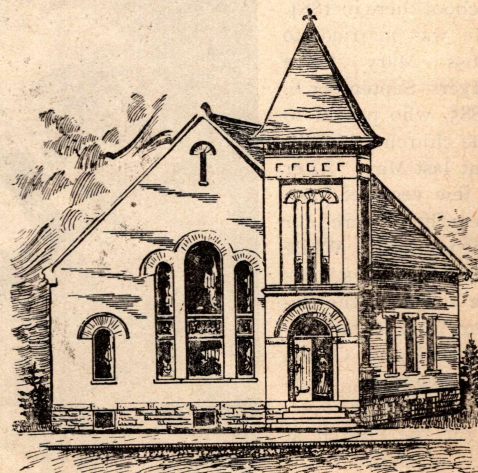

SUBJECT of this sketch, was born in Lincoln Township, Huntington County, Pa., October 31, 1855, son of Anthony and Elizabeth Shultz, and grandson of the sainted Rev. Theobald Fouse. At the age of fifteen, having completed the common school course of studies, he entered Juniata Collegiate Institute, at Martinsburg, Blair County, Pa. At the age of seventeen he began teaching in the public schools of his native county which continued for eight consecutive years, and was followed by six years teaching in Montgomery County, Ohio. During this period he pursued studies at different institutions and private, laying the foundation for the work of the ministry, to which he always felt called. He entered Heidelberg Theological Seminary in 1886, graduated with the class of 1887, was licensed by Tiffin Classis, ordained by Tuscarawas Classis, and served the Reedsburg charge in Wayne County, O., for two years. He accepted a call to the Fairfield Charge in Greene County, O., and served the charge for seven years and two months. He was commissioned by the General Board of Home Missions to the Springfield, O., Mission, and began work there on September 1, 1896.

He was married in 1887 to Miss Erminie Cooke, of Phillipsburg, Montgomery County, O. To them were born four children, three are living.

This congregation was organized November 19, 1895, by Rev. J. H. Horning, with 46 charter members. It was then served respectively by Rev. S. B. Yockey, D. D., and Rev. J. H. Horning until September 1st, 1896. Rev. R. F. Shultz then took charge, and with his faithful wife has been acceptably serving the mission since. The Board of Home Missions procured a lot at corner of Plum and Main Streets. Ground for a chapel was broken in June 1898. It will be completed in November, the entire cost being about $5,000. Not to be dedicated until money is all provided. The membership is about ninety, Sunday School enrollment over one hundred. Ladies' Aid Society and C. E. Society are doing good work. The foundation has been laid for a strong and prosperous congregation in the future.

When a sermon is driven home, it drives the hearer away from home, to preach the gospel to others. If a sermon is done when 'tis done, then 'twere well it were done quickly.

When Jesus said, "Greater things than these shall ye do," he may not have meant greater miracles, but things greater than miracles.

GRACE REFORMED CHURCH, SPRINGFIELD, O.

Woman's Missionary Society of the Reformed Church.

THE work of the women of the Reformed Church is going steadily forward. There are now, besides the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod, five district Synodical Societies, thirty-two Classical Societies and a great number of local societies and mission bands.

In the Eastern Synod there is an organization in each of the following classes: Reading, Schuylkill, Lancaster, East Susquehanna, Wyoming, Philadelphia, East Pennsylvania, Lebanon, Goshenhoppen, West Susquehanna, Lehigh and Tohickon. In Ohio Synod: Tiffin, St. Joseph, Miami, East Ohio, Tuscarawas and Lancaster Classes have each a Woman's Missionary Society. In Pittsburg Synod there is a Woman's Missionary Society in Westmoreland, Somerset, Allegheny, Clarion and St. Paul's Classes. In Synod of the Interior: Illinois, Iowa, Lincoln, Wichita and Kansas Classes have organizations. Potomac Synod has four Classical Societies: Mercersburg, Juniata, North Carolina and Zion's.

These are all Woman's Missionary Societies except three: that of Potomac Synod, which has no meetings and does no work, that of West Susquehanna Classis which is discussing the advisability of re-organizing as a Woman's Missionary Society, and that of Juniata Classis.

In each of the organizations in which men are placed at the head, the women complain that the work is retarded by the brethren, and that very few of the men who are put in as officers are in sympathy with the work. So long as women are kept out of synods and classes, and the work is necessarily carried on in separate channels, so long can each better help the general cause by working in his or her own field. We have an illustration of this in the Free Baptist Church. Their Missionary Society was organized in 1847. For twenty years the women took no part in their public meetings and sent out no missionaries. Since 1847 this Woman's Missionary Society, doing its work, has sent out about a dozen missionaries to India.

The organ of the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod is the Woman's Journal, published at Martinsburg, W. Va. The Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod and its auxiliaries are supporting the Girls' School at Sendai, Japan, and aim to give $4,000 a year to Home Missions.

Wherever this work of the women is encouraged by the ministry, it is growing right along. There is, in those classes and synods, not organized for mission work, much latent energy that would more than make up the shortage in our mission work, if drawn out. God hasten the day when every woman in the Reformed Church is not only permitted, but urged to do what she can for the cause of missions.

Necrology.

Ministers of the Reformed Church in the United States who have died during the year intervening between October 1, 1897, and October 1, 1898.

REV. SAMUEL KUHN, son of John and Elizabeth Kuhn, was born August 14, 1819, in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, and died October 28, 1897, aged 78 years, 2 months and 14 days. He was baptized in infancy, and on October 19, 1835, was confirmed and received into the Reformed Church by Rev. Frederick A. Rahawser. The early part of his life was spent on the farm. He was married to Eleanor M. Cunningham on March 22, 1843. Five sons and two daughters were born to them, of whom two daughters and one son, together with the mother, preceded him to eternity. March 13, 1877, he was married to Margaret Eckert, by Rev. W. H. H. Snyder. In the spring of 1841 he entered Marshall College at Mercersburg, Pa. Because of the lack of funds he later left school, took up his trade of cabinet-making, and studied privately, until October 24, 1850, when he was licensed by Mercersburg Classis. He first served the charge at New Bloomfield, Pa., from July 1, 1851, to December 19, 1862, when he accepted a call to the Aaronburg Charge. He remained here until April 1, 1867, when he began labors in the Hummelstown Charge. November 1, 1882, he was called to the Berrysburg Charge, and August 21, 1890, took the pastorate of the Liverford Charge. In the spring of 1895 he retired from the active ministry and took up his residence in Elizabethtown, Pa., where he fell asleep in Jesus.

REV. HENRY F. WITZEL was born February 6, 1871, in Gerstlinger, Germany, and died November 4, 1897, at Hazleton, Pa., aged 26 years, 8 months and 28 days. He came to America when twelve years of age, and was brought up at Mahanoy City, Pa. He was baptized in infancy, and later confirmed by Rev. H. A. Keyser, D. D. He prepared himself for the ministry at Ursinus College and Seminary. In 1896 he took his first and only charge at Hazleton, Pa., as the pastor of Grace Church. On June 30, 1896, he was married to Miss Ida Keyser, of Mahanoy City, who with a son survives him.

REV. A. J. G. DUBBS, D. D., was born in Berks County, Pennsylvania, June 8, 1826, and died at Allentown, Pa., November 7, 1897, aged 71 years and 6 months. He was baptized in infancy by a Lutheran minister. His father being a minister, he removed with the family to the Allentown Charge, where his boyhood days were spent. In 1840 he entered college at Easton, Pa., to prepare for a business life. After engaging in business for some time his health failed, and deciding to return to school, he entered Marshall College at Mercersburg, Pa., in 1845, where he remained until 1849, when he took charge of a select school for young men. The question presented itself to him, What does the Lord want me to do? After prayerful consideration he felt called to the ministry, and accordingly in 1851 was examined and licensed by the East Pennsylvania Classis, and received a call to preach English in the Reformed Church at Allentown, Pa., serving for one year, when he became the pastor of the South Whitehall Charge. In 1857 he was called to the charge composed of Trexlertown, Millerstown, Upper Milford, and Friedensville congregations, where he served faithfully and successfully for fourteen years, when at the division of the charge he became the pastor of the first three congregations, serving them until 1876. Though fifty years of age at this time, he took charge of a mission at Allentown and one at Emaus, where he labored diligently for sixteen years, with a membership of 1200. His health failed him and he retired from active service. He was married on October 18, 1853, to Maria Schreiber, who died January 23, 1894.

REV. C. T. HEIMBERGER was born in Germany in 1819, and died November 19, 1897, aged 79 years. He studied theology in his youth, but not until late in life, and after coming to this country, did he enter the sacred office of the ministry. At the age of sixty-three he became a pastor in Brooklyn, N. Y., and later at Milltown, N. J., preaching in all seven years, when he retired, and for nine years lived at Bridgeport, Conn., and afterward in New York City. He lies buried at Allentown, Pa.

REV. HENRY W. SUPER, D. D., LL.D., was born in Baltimore, Md., December 31, 1824, and died at his home in Collegeville, Pa., November 26, 1897, aged 72 years, 10 months and 25 days. The youngest of seven children, he was baptized in infancy. He attended private schools, and after his father died (1837) he entered a counting-house. He was a faithful employe and rose rapidly, in a few years becoming head book-keeper in the large establishment. In 1840 he united with the First Reformed Church of Baltimore. Feeling the higher calling, he in the fall of 1844 entered Mercersburg College, from which he graduated in 1849 with the first honors of his class. He studied theology for one year, then for lack of funds he went to Memphis, Tenn., and taught school for five months; when he started to return to Mercersburg, stopping on the way at Tiffin, Ohio, where Heidelberg College was just beginning its work, March, 1851. While there he attended the sessions of classis, and was examined and licensed on April 27, 1851, with a view of taking the Mt. Pisgah Reformed Church, near Tiffin. During the time that classis consumed in the division of the charge, Mr. Super returned to Mercersburg, and completed the course in the fall of 1851. He was called to Waynesboro, in Franklin County, Pa., beginning his pastorate there on November 22, 1851. In March, 1854, he resigned because of ill-health, but at the end of the year returned and remained pastor until April 1, 1862, when he took the Greensburg Charge. He resigned here in April, 1865, and returned to his native city of Baltimore. He received a call as Professor of Mathematics in the Keystone State Normal School, at Kutztown, Pa., where he remained until June, 1870. About this time Ursinus College opened its doors, and Mr. Super became the Professor of Church History and Homiletics, which position he occupied for twenty-two years. At the death of President J. H. A. Bomberger, D. D., he was elected acting president, but at the end of the year declined to serve longer in that position, and also resigned his professorship. Heidelberg Theological Seminary, Tiffin, Ohio, offered him the chair of New Testament Exegesis and Theology, but he declined. September 1, 1892, he was unanimously elected President of Ursinus College, and ably filled that position until July 6, 1893, when he resigned, after forty-two years in active ministerial and educational work. He is buried at Trappe, Pa. In 1878 he was married to Mrs. Sarah H. Detwiler, of Trappe, Pa.

REV. JOHN L. BRETZ was born in Stark County, Ohio, near Massillon, June 27, 1852, and died at his home in Millersburg, Indiana, November 30, 1897, aged 45 years, 5 months and 3 days. He was baptized in infancy and later confirmed in the faith of the Reformed Church. He was a farmer boy, assisting his father during the summer and attending the district school in the winter, until at the age of twenty-one he went for one year to the Smithville Academy. He taught a term of school, and then entered Heidelberg College, Tiffin, Ohio, graduating in 1880. He took a course in the Seminary, and in 1882 was licensed and ordained to the ministry, having as his first field of labor the charge at Bluffton, Indiana. In August, 1886, he was called to the pastorate at Canal Fulton, Ohio, where he labored successfully until June, 1891, when he accepted a call to Canal Winchester, Ohio. He resigned here in 1895 to enter the field at Millersburg, Indiana, where he preached his last sermon on October 31, 1897. He was married on September 3, 1884, to Miss Maggie S. Bauman, daughter of Rev. F. C. Bauman, Maquoketa, Iowa. Seven children blessed the union, four of whom preceded the father in death.

REV. ISAAC MATZINGER was born in Ruedlingen, Canton Schaffhausen, Switzerland, January 19, 1831, and died in Elk Rapids, Michigan, January 29, 1898, aged 67 years and 10 days. He came with his parents to this country when twenty years old and settled in Burlington, Ohio. His preparations for the ministry were received at Heidelberg Theological Seminary, Tiffin, Ohio, and he served the following charges: Bascom, Kenton and Ashland, in Ohio; Auburn and Clay City, Indiana; one in Minnesota; Chicago, Illinois; West Bay City and Elk Rapids in Michigan. He was twice married—March 27, 1859, to Miss Ophelia Ruetenik, who died while he was pastor at Ashland, Ohio. His second wife was Miss Dorothea Nass, to whom he was married November 30, 1875. She remains to mourn his departure. He was buried in the cemetery at Swanton, Ohio.

REV. CLEMENT Z. WEISER, D. D., was born October 29, 1830, at Selinsgrove, Pa., and died at East Greenville, Pa., March 1, 1898, aged 67 years, 4 months and 2 days. He was the son of Rev. Daniel and Caroline Weiser. He graduated from Marshall College in 1850, and from the Seminary in 1852. For several years he taught German in that institution. He was ordained to the ministry in 1855, and served as his first charge Selinsgrove and vicinity. In 1862 he was called as assistant pastor to his father in the New Goshenhoppen Charge, and in November of the year following he was unanimously elected to succeed his father in this charge. Here he spent the remainder of his life. For a number of years he was a member of the Board of Foreign Missions, and for a time its president. He served some years as trustee of Franklin and Marshall College. He was much of a literary man, writing for the several church papers, as well as the author of a number of books. Since 1874 he was a member of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania. Perhaps the greatest and most valuable work of Dr. Weiser was the part he took in the celebrated "peace measures" in the Reformed Church. At a meeting of the General Synod in Lancaster, Pa., in May, 1878, he proposed the creation of a commission to "consider and solemnly deliberate over all matters of controversy in the church, with a view of devising a plan of amicable adjustment." The proposition was accepted, and it proved to be the solution to the problem that had harassed the church. Doctor Weiser was made the chairman of the Commission, and it formulated the "Peace Compact," which was heartily adopted by the people. The same commission also prepared the Directory of Worship, which was accepted by General Synod. Dr. Weiser was married in 1859 to Louisa C. Gutelius, of Mifflinburg, Pa.

REV. AUGUSTUS KANNE was born in Detmold, Germany, and educated for the ministry at the Mission House, St. Chrishona. He died at University Place, a suburb of Lincoln, Neb., March 20, 1898, aged 55 years, 5 months and 20 days. In 1870 he took charge of the church at Wabasha, Minn., and labored there seven years. He next went to LaCrosse, Wis., and ministered there five years, when he went to Han, Iowa, remaining there ten years. He was then commissioned by the German Board of Missions to Lincoln, Neb., where he labored for six years prior to his death. He was twice married—first to Miss Elizabeth Danuser, of Switzerland. She died July 6, 1895, and on September 10, 1896, he was married to Miss Catherine Danuser, a sister to his first wife. He was a valuable man to the German portion of our church in the West.

REV. DANIEL F. SCHROTH was born July 13, 1834, in Wurtemberg, Germany, and died in Helvetia, W. Va., March 21, 1898, aged 63 years, 8 months and 8 days. He came to America in May, 1854, and worked on a farm until 1866, when he felt called to the ministry and entered the Mission House at Franklin, Wis. After three years of diligent study he was examined and licensed, and began the Master's work at Marion, Ohio. On January 16, 1872, he was married to Dorothea Fisher. She passed into glory in October of the same year. A year later he was married to Elizabeth Nill. In his last days he suffered great affliction.

REV. JACOB O. MILLER, D. D., was born in Woodstock, Va., December 30, 1822, and died at his home in York, Pa., April 18, 1898, aged 75 years, 3 months and 18 days. His boyhood was spent in Reading, Pa. He later taught school and prepared himself for college. In 1845 he entered Marshall College, Mercersburg, Pa., and graduated with honor in 1848. He took the theological course in the Seminary at the same place, graduating in 1850. On October 13th of the same year, he was ordained to the ministry at Martinsburg, Va. His first charge was at Winchester, Va., as a missionary, serving until January 1, 1853, when he received and accepted a call to the First Reformed Church (now Trinity), at York, Pa., where he faithfully served his Lord till death—forty-five years. He was a trustee of Franklin and Marshall College for more than twenty-five years, and a member of the Board of Visitors of the Theological Seminary. He was President of the Board of Home Missions from 1871 to 1873, and also in 1893 President of the General Synod. He was chaplain of the York City Fire Department over twenty-five years. He is survived by a wife and three children.

REV. LAWRENCE D. LEBERMAN was born in Germany, and came to America when quite young. He studied for the ministry in Pennsylvania College (Lutheran), Gettysburg, Pa., and was ordained by the Goshenhoppen Classis in 1846. His first charge consisted of five congregations—Amity, Baumstown, Huber's, Brownback's, and one other. In 1848 he was called to a charge in Westmoreland County, Pa., which had nine congregations. In 1856 he became the pastor of the Petersburg Charge, and in 1858 of the Mercer Charge. He was called to Meadville in 1860, where he resigned in 1866, and for several years was without a charge, serving as Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions. In 1869 he became pastor of the Leesport Charge, but resigned in 1870 and assumed the pastorate of the Pottstown Charge. This was his last field. He resigned in 1882 and engaged in secular business in Pottstown and preached as opportunity offered. About fifteen years ago he removed to Philadelphia, engaging in business. He died April 28, 1898, aged 77 years, 10 months and 5 days. He was twice married—first to Louisa Benford, who died some thirty years ago. His second wife was Catherine Francis, who survives him. He is buried at Reading, Pa.

REV. FRANK FERENCZI, who was the faithful pastor of the Hungarian Mission at Pittsburg, died on Friday,

June 10, 1898, aged forty-five years. He had given much time and hard work to this promising field, and dearly loved his congregation, which was evinced by the fact that he left all his possessions—several hundred dollars in a building association, and $1,000 insurance—to his people.

REV. J. G. FETZER was born in Manneberg, Wurtemberg, Germany, January 6, 1854, and died on his farm, near Wirth, Arkansas, on June 18, 1896, aged 44 years, 5 months and 12 days. In his native land he attended the public school; afterward he learned the trade of stonemason. He prepared for the ministry in the Mission House at Basel, Germany. In 1879 he came to this country, locating at Wyandotte, Mich., where he served a congregation for five years. Later he served three congregations in Ohio and one at Oshkosh, Wis. He was appointed visiting minister, locating for a year and three months at Schleisingerville, Wis. He withdrew from the Evangelical Synod of North America, and went to Wyandotte, Mich., for a short time, then to Russellville, Ky., and after three months (1890) to Wirth, Arkansas, established a congregation, and served two others in Missouri. He was married in 1880 to Miss Amelia Ruetz, of Wyandotte, Mich., who with seven children survives him.

REV. JOHN C. KLAR was born October 5, 1823, at Eckhartsborn, Kreis Nidda, Hessen-Darmstadt, Germany, and died on his farm, near Navarre, Ohio, July 16, 1898, aged 74 years, 9 months and 11 days. He came to this country with his parents at the age of thirteen, and resided in Baltimore, Md. He attended public school, then took a course in Mercersburg College, from which he graduated in 1850. He prepared for the ministry in the Seminary at Lancaster, Pa., and was ordained at a meeting of classis at Wooster, Ohio, in 1852. He was in the active ministry thirty-five years, serving seven different charges and supplying various fields, until 1887, when health failed him, and he retired to the farm. He was married October 22, 1854, to Catherine Krouse.

REV. THOMAS GILMORE APPLE, D. D., LL.D., was born near Easton, Pa., November 14, 1829, and died at his home on the Franklin and Marshall College grounds, Lancaster, Pa., on September 17, 1898, aged nearly 69 years. In his early boyhood he worked in his father's mill. He obtained his education at Easton and Mercersburg, graduating from Marshall College in 1850. He studied theology during his college course and afterwards privately. He assumed charge of an academy in Easton in 1852, and at the same time became the pastor of the congregation at Riegelsville, and also of the Lower Mt. Bethel congregation, about eight miles from Easton. In the winter of 1855-56 he became pastor of the Second Church, Greensburg, Pa. After fifteen months here, he labored a short time at Mechanicsburg, Pa., then served at Greencastle, Pa., from 1858 to 1865, when he became President of Mercersburg College, and in 1871 was elected Professor of Church History and New Testament Exegesis in the Theological Seminary just removed from Mercersburg to Lancaster, Pa. In 1877 he was elected President of Franklin and Marshall College, retaining his professorship in the Seminary till 1889, when he resigned the presidency, but continued as professor in the Seminary. He received the title of A. B. and of A. M. in course, from his Alma Mater, and from Lafayette College the degrees of Ph. D., and LL.D. In 1867 he succeeded Dr. Harbaugh as editor of the Mercersburg Quarterly Review. Dr. Apple served his church in various capacities. He attended every meeting of General Synod from its inception in 1863 to the present time, except two, and was President of the Synod in Reading, Pa., in 1893. He was a delegate to the Alliance of Reformed Churches in Belfast, Ireland, in 1884, read a paper before the Alliance in Philadelphia in 1880, and attended a meeting of the same body in London in 1888. His writings were frequently found in our church papers. He was chairman of the joint committee on the contemplated union of the Reformed Church in America and the Reformed Church in the United States. He was also a member of the Peace Commission, and of the Liturgical Commission. He was married to Miss Emma Matilda Miller, of Easton, Pa., in 1851, who with eight children and two brothers survives him. He lies buried in the cemetery at Lancaster, Pa.

Register of Ministers of the Reformed Church in the United States. FOR THE YEAR 1899.

[NOTE.—In order to render this register as valuable as possible, we give the name, postoffice address, year of ordination, and place of theological preparation. E stands for Eastern Seminary, formerly Mercersburg, now Lancaster; H for Heidelberg Seminary; MH for Mission House; U for Ursinus College, Theological Department; Y for York and Carlisle or Yale. Those officiating in the German language, or in both German and English, are marked O.]

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank all who so kindly gave their assistance in making THE REFORMED CHURCH ALMANAC a success. Especially do the stated clerks of the fifty-seven classes, the stated clerks of the eight district synods and the presidents of our institutions of learning deserve recognition for the promptness in which they furnished us with valuable statistics and information.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD of REFORMED CHURCH

114-116 E. Fourth Street, DAYTON, OHIO.

Heidelberg University,

Tiffin, Ohio.

Founded 1850, under the care of the Ohio Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States; pleasant location; easily accessible by steam and electric cars; building heated by steam; commodious chapel; well-ventilated and well-lighted recitation rooms; carefully selected library and finely appointed reading room; well-equipped chemical laboratory; four literary societies together with two Christian Associations; extensive museum; well-furnished gymnasium; bathing facilities; special instruction in physical culture.

The University is Composed of the following Departments:

- I. THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT, including College and Academy.
- II. DEPARTMENT OF PEDAGOGY.
- III. THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.
- IV. THE ART DEPARTMENT.
- V. THE COLLEGE OF COMMERCE.
- VI. THE SCHOOL OF ORATORY.

Courses of Study in the Literary Department.

- I. CLASSICAL, leading to the degree of A. B.
- II. PHILOSOPHICAL, leading to the degree of Ph. B.
- III. SCIENTIFIC, leading to the degree of B. S.
- IV. LITERARY, leading to the degree of B. L.

The Academy offers thorough preparatory training for the several courses of study in College. The Normal Department offers a thorough course for preparation in teaching. This course is in strict harmony with that formulated by the State Board of School Examiners, and endorsed by the Ohio State Teachers' Association. It aims to prepare teachers so that they may secure common and High School certificates from the State Board. The other departments offer full and thorough courses in their respective line of studies.

Heidelberg Theological Seminary carries forward its work co-ordinately with the University under a separate charter. The Seminary year commences on the third Wednesday in September, and closes on the third Wednesday in April. Tuition free.

DAVID VAN HORNE, D. D., President.

EXPENSES IN UNIVERSITY.

Ursinus College

Collegeville, Pa.

This institution is particularly favored in many respects. It is situated in a beautiful and healthful town near Philadelphia and easily accessible. It offers young men and women most thorough instruction and ample educational equipment. There are five courses leading to the A. B. degree. The pervading spirit is modern and progressive. All professors are university-trained. Laboratory methods are employed in science and psychology. Encouragement and opportunities for athletic sports. Physical instructor, gymnasium, athletic field. Expenses $185 to $225.

The Academy of Ursinus College offers in addition to a strong curriculum and a faculty of college-trained teachers, the mental stimulus and varied intellectual opportunities of a college community. Thorough preparation for any college. The dormitories are furnished, heated by steam, and thoroughly comfortable and healthful. Expenses, $190 to $240.
